Message from Father Gonnella

This week, we have the opportunity to celebrate the memorial of St. Bridget of Sweden. She is a saint that is very direct in the way that she speaks, and I think a few of her thoughts will be very helpful for us at this moment in our country's history. Here are two statements from her that I recently came across:

"The source of justice is not vengeance but charity."

"The world would have peace if only men of politics would follow the Gospels."

As I mentioned last Sunday, it is our duty as Christians to be praying for peace. We must pray for peace in the world and for our own nation, communities, and families. Authentic peace only comes through Jesus Christ and His Gospel. Please join me in praying for our country and all of our leaders, especially during this election cycle. While the world around us slides away from God, we as Christians are called to witness to His infinite love and goodness. God is good and He wants to pour that goodness upon us, if only we will receive it. Let us pray for the triumph of our Lord's Sacred Heart and the establishment of His Reign in our world!

Schedule Change

Mass on Monday, July 22nd will be at 8:00am, and there will be no holy hour scheduled on this day.
